

What to expect at a Wellspring Urban Service Camp

You can expect:

- to be welcomed and treated with respect by your coordinator, the Old First staff and congregation;
- to spend time working/helping with the disadvantaged populations either directly or indirectly;
- to experience an urban setting;
- to be engaged in discussions about the key issues that Philadelphia communities face (age appropriate discussion);
- to have free time with your group to explore the local area;
- to have any questions you have answered to the best of our knowledge;

The Wellspring and Old First staff is at your disposal for any assistance you will need while you are here – whether it's maps, spiritual guidance or help understanding how your work impacts the community.
